Grand Aquatic Pageant Led by the Cincinnati-Young Lady Naval Guards' Interesting Ceremony.

New York, June 17.-The water pageant was the feature of the demonstration incident to the opening of the Hariem ship gannl to-day. At 12 o'clock one of the big guns of the war ship Cincinnati beomes sat the signal for the divisions of the flo tiffs to take place in line. The head of the column formed about 200 yards from shore, a fittle to the north of theentrance to

About the same time the flagship Elaine, having the committee of arrangements and the invited guests abourd, hove in sight. Her decks were crowded, as with flags and barners flying and lively strains of music from the band on board she gilded up to the warship and took her position

There was a ratilling of chains at the railroad crossing at the entrance of the caual and the big drawbridge was slowly hasted up. All the vessels in the first division were in line and amid the screaming of whistles from the whole fleet and while the Cincinnati's guns were still boombre, the time Separatorayian which led the ing, the tug Scandanavian, which led the ocession, swept through the opening, sely fellowed by half a dozen little steam closely followed by half a dozen little steam launches, which came up in double file and shot shead. Then came a score of barges, tags and excursion steamers.

The Elaine, with the invited guests, led the second division of the parade and there was another blast from the whistles as the went through the draw. Following her were a score or more of tug boats, most of which had been chartered for the occasion by various organizations. Last of all came the steam yachts which brought up the rear of the parade with a fine turnthe rear of the parade with a fine turn

OVER A SCORE OF CONTESTS

Twenty-six Will Encumber the Docket of the Next House.

Plenty of Work Awaits the Committee on Elections at the Coming Session-Testimony Voluminous.

Clerk Kerr, of the House of Representatives, resterday opened the papers in the con-ested election cases of Kearby vs. Abbott, from the Sixth Texas district; Rosentha vs. Crowley from the Tenth Texas district Thorp vs. McKenny, from the Fourth Vir the Third Maryland district.

The papers in each instance were opened in the presence of either of the parties to the contest, or their representatives, and the ceremony consisted merely in a hur-ried inspection of the documents.

As there are twenty-six contests to be settled by the next House, it is evident that the Elections Committee will find all the work it will care to undertake.

Mother Goese Improved.

An "improvement" (t) of Mother Goese's melodies claims to have reached its fifth edition. Are there really enough parents in the land who are willing to give their chil-dren such stories as this to sell five editions of such stuff as: Little Jack Horner

Eating a morsel of nice brown brend;
"Have some pie orcake;"
"Not I," with a shake
And toss of his wise little head.
"For the bread will make hone
And white teeth like a stone."

And as Rockaby baby, Normany only,
Our darling is fil;
We'll soon have him well,
Rockaby baby,
there is cough, with anrest,
So we'll bring out hot flamels and cover
